Annual Trekking

Date: 28/1/2023

Time: 6:30 AM

Venue: Avani Betta

On Saturday of 28/1/23, we, the NSS unit went to Avani Betta, which is a small town near Kolar. The main base of our trekking was the Ramalingeshwara Temple and its surroundings. This place is said to be related to Ramayana. The legend has it that Sage Valmiki lived here and Lord Rama had also visited him while returning to Ayodhya from Lanka. It is also strongly believed that Lava and Kusha were born here. So hills are called Lava-Kusha Betta. People here mostly depend on agriculture for their living. Almost every family here is vaccinated with Atleast 2 doses. According to the 2020 Census, the literacy rate here is 73.8%. Some of the family here gets their pension from the hospitals, while others have to rely on bank loans. The working population here is 57.5%. If suggestions taken, providing more and more employment opportunities to the civilians of Avani town would be great.
